Drama Queen of the Month: Deanne Weill She is doing the Cupcakes and Wands for Pinkalicious

Treasurer: Dawn Campin: Financial Report: 7500$ from the Bunko Fundraiser. We are using that money for Scholarships.

VP Sponsorship: Plan to re-work for next season over the summer. Will need 4 Volunteers for team leaders to talk with Sponsors, help with selling business adds, and work with students to bring in business adds. We now have our 5013c for Tax deductions and matching funds will also be Tax Deductible. We will start this summer to get donations for next season.

VP Productions: Renee Lovenburg:

- T-shirts for Pinkalicious are ready
- Playbills for Pinkalicious are ready
- Pinkalicious : 3 shows: one on Friday (5/12), and two on Saturday (5/13). Show last 70 minutes with one 10 minute intermission. Bubble Life has a synopsis on the Play. Students have a sign up list and are free, will just check them off the list when they arrive.
- Ticket sales: (Kathy Bramlage) ticket sales are good.
- Volunteers (Lina Valdez and Angie Easton) : Sarah Mondress will be doing the Meet and Greet Photo Shoot for Pinkalicious. Will have signup sheet with e-mail addresses to send the pictures. Will have a white board in the foyer after the show.
- Ushers: (Scott Lanier) : Will cover Friday and Saturday day, Renee Lovenburg will cover Saturday night. Will have a meeting with the Ushers before the Friday Show at 5:30 pm. Ushers will need to handle clean up after the shows with the Tech Crew.
